

Please dismiss the BellSouth petition to end regulation of broadband services. Our President has repeatedly stated the importance of the small business. Ending broadband regulation will have a dire effect on thousands of independent ISP. I have had internet service with three major providers before I migrated to a small ISP that I found satisfactory. Do not take away my right to choose by making them non-competitive.